

SAMPLE FAMILY DESCRIPTIONS

Sometimes you need a short sentence or two to describe your family. It may be on a lead in to your website, on a link or ad when networking, or even just to help you focus on what sets you apart from other families. Here are some sample family descriptions to help you.

Lee and Alex

Family traditions, strong marriage, and our views on parenting and open adoption – please visit our website to find out more about us!

Misty and Carl

Loving family, happy home and a life full of possibilities. This is what we want for your baby. We adopted Seth 3 years ago. We are waiting to meet our next child's tummy mommy.

Leann and Steve

Loving, caring couple welcome your baby into secure, happy home. We promise to provide our undivided affection, acceptance, and love.

Clara and Michael

Young, adventurous California family hoping to add another child into our home through open adoption, and will embrace your child as one of its own.

Suzanne and Todd

Fun, educated, energetic couple in Northern California wants to adopt a baby. We are financially secure and would provide your child with a loving home in the beautiful outdoors, near the ocean and animals.

Corrinne and Jay

Loving, caring, married 13+ years, young in mind/body, well – educated, financially stable, hard-working, raised catholic, family-oriented, self-starters, well-traveled, gardeners, and lovers of laughter.

Charles and Paula

We have so much love, experience, and joy to share with children. We want very much to fulfill our dreams of parenting at least two more children (hopefully a little girl).

Alice Joy

Professional African American physician is eager to become a first-time mother. I love following professional baseball and football and playing city league sports, and look forward to sharing my love of sports with a child.
